2019 AIRBUS GEDC DIVERSITY AWARD FOR ENGINEERING EDUCATION

Enter before 11:59am (GMT) on Monday 18 November 2019

CALL FOR ENTRIES

Shining a light on successful projects that inspire students from all profiles and backgrounds to study and succeed in engineering.

We are looking for entries from innovative projects that have delivered tangible results in encouraging diversity in engineering education among students and/or graduates.

www.airbus.com/diversityaward

#DiversityAward2019
ABOUT THE AWARD

Developed and funded by Airbus in partnership with the GEDC, the leading international organisation for leaders of schools and colleges of engineering education, the award is now in its seventh year. Together, Airbus and the GEDC want to recognise good practice around the world and inspire others to replicate successful initiatives in their own institutions. The long-term aim of the award is to increase diversity among the global community of engineers so that the engineering industry reflects the diversity of the communities it supports, and the wide-ranging work that engineers do.

HOW TO ENTER?

Award entries can be made by individuals or teams working with or in an engineering faculty, or a school or college of engineering.

1. Register for the award online and submit a summary of your project
2. Eligible projects will be invited to compete a full award entry from September 2019
3. Submit your complete entry by 11:59am (GMT) on Monday 18th November 2019

WHY ENTER?

Global visibility to propel your project further
Inspire others to replicate your successful initiative
Expand your network and be part of a dedicated community
Make an impact in Engineering Education worldwide

Find out more about the award and the entry criteria here:

Find out more about previous shortlisted projects in our e-book here:

www.airbus.com/diversityaward
www.airbusgedcdiversityaward.com/ebook